ASMODEE USA AND PANDASAURUS GAMES ENTER IN TO EXCLUSIVE ENGLISH LANGUAGE DISTRIBUTION DEAL

Roseville, MN – August 6, 2022. Asmodee USA and Pandasaurus Games have entered in to an exclusive English language distribution deal that encompasses the studio’s entire catalog in US, Mexico, United Arab Emirates, and South Africa. Pandasaurus is well known for their library of hit games, including The Mind, Machi Koro, Dinosaur Island, The Loop, That Time You Killed Me, and more.

Pandasaurus Games was founded by co-owners Molly Wardlaw and Nathan McNair and strives to create memorable shared experiences through gaming. They published their first title, Tammany Hall, in 2012 and have since grown into a known name in the industry as well as with gamers with releases like their best-selling title, The Mind. In all their games, Pandasaurus delivers immersive experiences supported by innovative game design and incredible art. Upcoming titles from the studio include Skate Summer, a wild ride into the world of skate culture that invokes classic skateboarding video games; Wildstyle, a real time game of street art and area control; and Nacho Pile, a flavorful push-you-luck game from the creator of Happy Salmon.

“Asmodee USA is excited to work with the Pandasaurus Games team to bring their titles to our customers,” said Steve Buckmaster, Interim Head of US Distribution. “Their library offers a wide range of colorful, immersive games that are unique to the market and a perfect addition to our distribution catalog.”

“We at Pandasaurus could not be more excited for this upcoming partnership with Asmodee USA,” said Molly Wardlaw, Co-Owner of Pandasaurus Games. “We feel strongly that Asmodee has a similar bold and innovative energy, as well as a deep appreciation for art and design, as that that helped lead Pandasaurus to our current success. We cannot think of a better partner to represent our titles.”

Pandasaurus Games’ new and existing titles will be available from Asmodee USA beginning in early 2023.
